THE INDEX OF PSYCHOANALYTIC WRITINGS

Nine Volumes

Edited by Alexander Grinstein, M.D.

The standard and indispensable research tool in the field, this remarkable set covers all of psychoanalytic literature from its inception through 1960. Every psychoanalytic book, article, monograph, and brief communication is included — listed alphabetically by author and, under each author, by title. Researched in 21 languages, the material was drawn from books and periodicals — many now out of print. Precise references not only indicate where books and articles have been reviewed, but also show where to locate reviews and abstracts written by psychoanalysts. Foreign-language entries have been translated into English.

The first five volumes cover the literature up to 1952. Volumes VI through IX supplement the information in the preceding series and continue the bibliography through 1960.
